F040065 In re Manuel L., a Minor

The case is remanded to the juvenile court for that court to conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine which Barker entity or entities had a conflict of interest, the nature of the conflict, the effect of the failure of the Barker corporate entity and the first and second level conflicts offices to comply with the ethical considerations (glass walls) specified in the Fresno County contract, and whether any actual conflict or failure to adhere to the contractual ethical considerations had an adverse impact upon the legal representation rendered to Manuel. If the juvenile court finds there was a conflict of interest that adversely affected counsel's performance, the jurisdictional and dispositional orders are deemed vacated. If the juvenile court does not so find, the orders are affirmed. Cornell, J.
